What is Noh?

Noh (能) is a major form of classical Japanese musical drama. It is a form of art that has been handed down for over 650 years. In 2001 it was recognized by UNESCO as an intangible cultural heritage of Humanity.

Amazing Experience

This workshop is for overseas tourists who want to know authentic Japanese traditional culture and to experience it. All the Instructors at the workshop are expert professionals. You can not receive their instructions unless you are on the special occasion, even if you are Japanese. They are all hoping to convey Japanese culture to foreign people and get their interest. In this workshop, taking commemorative photos at the original photo studio is included.

The photo studio, "Studio☆Diva", led by photographer Yamaguchi has the professional photographers and experienced makeup artists. You can receive some prints and data so you can display the beautiful photos in your room and share on SNS.

This workshop will be an opportunity for you to touch an authentic Japanese culture, and it will be a long-lasting form of experience.
